

FEATURES

- 6 A PASSION FOR MILITARY MEMORABILIA
Why David Anderson got involved
- 10 GONE SOUTH FOR THE BIKES AND TRADITION
Why Shane Price swapped the bright lights of Auckland for the southern city's cycling heritage.
- 13 AN ITALIAN CLASSIC
Lisa Sarsfield discovers a rare motorcycle.
- 14 COMPASS VILLAGE
Aleeshea Campbell checks out village life in Tauranga
- 17 HERITAGE ESCAPE
A hidden country retreat where luxury harmonises with history and nature.
- 20 THE ROMANCE OF STEAM
North Canterbury's Weka Pass Railway
- 22 DREAM KEEPS RURAL HERITAGE ALIVE
Restoring a slice of North Canterbury's farming history reaps rewards and brings benefits to a local community.
- 29 SYMBOL OF GROWTH AND PROSPERITY
The people of Hawera are passionate about one of their town's icons and Lisa Sarsfield finds out why.
- 32 200 YEARS JOHN DEERE
The company that John Deere established in 1837 still carries his name. Although American in origin, this distinctive brand name has been part of New Zealand's farming and industrial scene from early days.
- 36 TWO RARE TRACTORS FROM OPPOSITE ENDS OF THE WORLD
Last year was the 100th centenary of the farm tractor in New Zealand and many rare models made public appearances at various shows and rallies.

6

20

32

49

52

38 RIVER LADY

Paula Trubshaw goes on board the Ariana to get a great story and ends up polishing the brass.

42 NEW ZEALAND NATIONAL MARITIME MUSEUM

An amazing national treasure on Auckland's historic waterfront.

44 MUSIC FROM THE PAST

Vivienne Bailey visits Melody Farm.

47 ORATIA FOLK MUSEUM

Tony Russell attends a working bee and discovers a slice of West Auckland's history.

49 THE LEGACY OF SIR LEN SOUTHWARD

More than just cars – a life of passion, invention and achievement.

52 WAIMATE'S BIRTHDAY BASH

This South Canterbury town's 150th party was a real community effort.

COLUMNS

- 1 Editorial
- 4 Ode to Volunteers
- 5 News
- 41 Heritage Kitchen
- 46 A good Book Will Last Forever
- 55 An Artist's Profile
- 57 A Writer's Profile
- 58 Book Reviews

PLUS

- 60 Upcoming Events
- 61 Club Listings
- 62 Next Issue
- 64 Coup de Grace

Cover Photograph

Robin Willan, Brian O'Sullivan, Amy Willan and Vivien Willan during an open day at BlackHills.

Back Cover:

The Hawkins family of Christchurch built this traditional timber mill especially for demonstrations at shows and rallies.