

FEATURES

---

- 6 ALL DRESSED UP IN OAMARU
We call in at the Victorian Heritage Celebrations.
- 9 JEWISH PRAYER HOUSE
Tony Russell finds out why and how David Harre took a liking to a happy little house and rescued it from certain demise.
- 12 LADIES AND GENTS FINERY
Vintage fashion accessories fit for greeting the Queen.
- 13 QUILTER EXTRAORDINAIRE
Lisa Sarsfield reports on the tradition of quilt making.
- 17 GREASE AND GLORY
Rachel Ernst takes us to the stockcars - 1950s and 60s style.
- 20 MR PLANET JUNIOR
Tony Russell discovers some rare vintage agricultural implements in Auckland.
- 29 SMOKING GUNS
Some guys just love a big bang.
- 30 100 YEARS OF THE FARM TRACTOR IN NEW ZEALAND
We go to the A&P Show to look at yesteryear's models.
- 34 THERE'S GOLD IN THEM THAR' HILLS
Paula Trubshaw visits a gold mining museum.
- 38 STEAM TUG LYTTELTON
This maritime icon might be struggling to survive but if you step on board for a Sunday cruise you're bound to have a great experience.

17

20

30

38

54

42 OLD FASHIONED FUN

Edwardian Festival in Hagley Park.

44 RUST HAVEN

Lisa Sarsfield finds treasures at the Vintage Machinery Rest Home in South Taranaki.

47 A LABOUR OF LOVE

A childhood dream come true - building Replica Penny Farthing Bicycles.

50 STEAM AND BLACK SMOKE

How one Canterbury farmer's passion for traction engines became a family affair.

54 NORTHBROOK COLONIAL MUSEUM

Down a quiet country lane we discover a place that's bound to bring back memories.

COLUMNS

- 1 Editorial
- 4 Lighthouse magic
- 5 All Sorts
- 16 From the Heritage Kitchen
- 25 Humour
- 26 Harvest Home - Event Information
- 27 Subscription Form
- 43 What can we say!
- 57 Book Review
- 58 Artist's Profile
- 59 Video Review

PLUS

- 60 Upcoming Events
- 61 Club Listings
- 62 Next Issue
- 64 Coup de Grace