

FEATURES

- 6 IN PRINT
Vivienne Bailey discovers the Bedpress Plate Printing Museum
- 9 WINDOWS TO YOUR SOUL
Rachel Ernst checks out stained glass windows and discovers they can be repaired.
- 11 NEW ZEALAND IN BLOOM
Bernard Roundhill's work is on display at Te Papa in Wellington and Christopher Moor checked it out.
- 13 AN ENDURING BREEZE
Des Townson drew up an eye sweet little sailing dinghy in 1956 and Don Currie finds out why the class is still going strong.
- 17 HE HAD A TRACTOR TO BUILD
When Allan Willetts had a heart attack 16 years ago, doctors told him that he would never work again. They were wrong.
- 20 THE WILLETTS COLLECTION
Kathleen Stringer from the North Otago Museum tells us why this collection is significant for New Zealand.
- 21 THE GREAT NEW ZEALAND MARITIME HERITAGE TRAIL
We discover the newest addition to the family of Heritage Trails.
- 23 AT THE BEACH
With the New Zealand National Maritime Museum and the Alexander Turnbull Library.
- 29 OUR MOVING IMAGE HERITAGE
Rebecca Adams finds out how we can access the treasures of the New Zealand Film Archive.
- 31 HISTORICAL VILLAGE AT HOWICK
Looking at more than 150 years of authentic living history leaves Tony Russell wanting more.
- 35 BLACK GOLD
Lisa Sarsfield discovers one of the world's oldest working oil wells is in Taranaki.
- 37 TROOPER GREEN
Tony Russell visits John Green to talk about certain things military and a bit more.

6

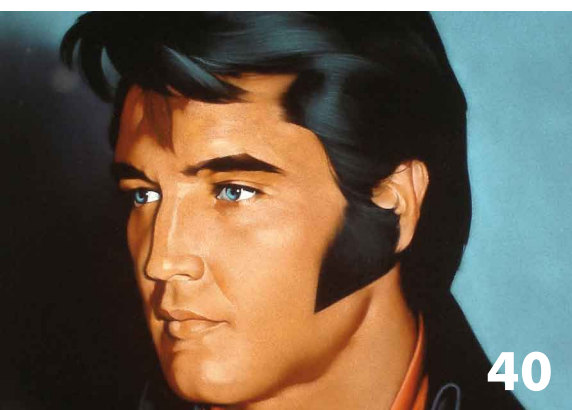

17

23

37

40

40 K.D.'S KING

Try some Rock 'n' Roll at the Elvis Presley Memorial Record Room. Lisa Sarsfield did.

43 GUARDIAN OF ANCIENT CRAFTS

The ancient craft of ornamental turning and woodcarving is enjoying a revival in Ashburton. We call at the Museum of Woodwork, Tools and Ornamental Turning and meet its founder and curator, Bob Lynn.

45 CONFESSIONS OF A VINTAGE CLOTHING ADDICT

How many vintage dresses does a girl need? Lots, according to Dee O'Hare.

47 NEW ZEALAND'S SHEET MUSIC

Christopher Moor discovers early Christmas music, among other things, at the Sheet Music Archive of New Zealand Charitable Trust.

50 THE START OF SOMETHING BIG

David Clarkson attends the ground-breaking ceremony for the New Zealand National Railway Museum during Christchurch's CarterGroup Heritage Week.

52 SCOOTERS - NECESSITY OR CULTURE?

Rachel Ernst delves into scooter history.

55 HISTORIC HOMESTEAD INVITES CURIOSITY

Jocelyn McIlraith takes a look at Station Peak Homestead.

COLUMNS

- 1 Editorial
- 4 Book Draws, Events, News
- 26 Humour
- 27 Subscription Form
- 57 Old fashioned treats
- 58 Holiday Reading

PLUS

- 60 Upcoming Events
- 61 Club Listings
- 62 Next Issue
- 64 Coup de Grace

Front cover photo: Authentic living at Historical Village at Howick: Caroline Van der Graaf mixes dough for Welsh cakes to be cooked on the griddle over an open fire.

Photo by Tony Russell.

Back cover: The photograph in the advertisement is of the Sumpter Wharf, Oamaru, completed in 1884. It stands to this day.

Photograph - North Otago Museum.

The photograph forming backdrop to the advertisement on page 13 is John Simpson sailing Ozzie, an early Zephyr, on the Christchurch Estuary.

Photo by Don Currie