

FEATURES

6 Edendale Crank Up

Stephen Counsell gives us a townie's perspective of this popular Southland event.

8 Paterson's Cottage

A historic cob building in South Canterbury, once a stopover for drovers and wagoners, is again gaining the attention of travellers. Jocelyn McIlraith writes why.

10 The Making of a Fun Ho! Repro

Christopher Moor shows how these popular reproduction toys are made.

12 Helenstown – a model town

Vivienne Bailey visits a town full of models based on once well-known buildings from around New Zealand.

14 Fletcher House

Erika Currie travels to the Otago Peninsula to check out the first house the young Scottish immigrant James Fletcher, later Sir James Fletcher, built in 1909.

18 The Oamaru Victorian Heritage Celebrations

Erika Currie reports from the event that has become a "must" on the social calendar of annual heritage celebrations.

22 All Saints at Howick

Tony Russell delves into the history of the 160-year old church, believed to be the oldest building in Manukau City.

30 Champion of Steam Locomotives

Ian Welsh has dedicated most of his life to the preservation of steam locomotives. Erika Currie profiles the man who refused to let the romance of steam train travel die.

32 Glenbrook Steam & Vintage Festival

It was all smiles at the Glenbrook Vintage Railway Station. Erika Currie finds out why.

35 Colonial Home

Christopher Moor steps back in time in the heart of Wellington.

COLUMNS

1 Editorial

4 Book Draws, Mail Box, News

29 How to do Local History - Heritage Reading

57 Heritage Reading and Heritage DVDs/Videos

64 Coupe de Grace

PLUS

25 Freepost Survey Form

27 Freepost Subscription Form

60 Upcoming Events

61 Club Listings

62 Next Issue

6

38 The mystery of the R&P Tractor

Erika Currie discovers three extremely rare tractors, on the extremely rare occasion of them being together in one place.

14

42 Our Sporting Heritage

The New Zealand Sports Hall of Fame celebrates the legacy of some of our greatest sporting champions. Erika Currie has a look.

41 An Epic Journey – Vintage Style

Seeing a traction engine doing “real” work is rare these days, but Erika Currie found two doing just that – doing real work, hauling and manoeuvring.

47 Hobby Keeps Memories Alive

Erika Currie talks to a man whose hobby reflects the memories of his working years.

48

48 Re-Enactment of the 1917 Parliamentary Tour of the North

In 1917, 34 cars carrying parliamentarians, business, community and farming leaders toured the far north to survey the region’s resources and potential. This year’s tour retraced the original route as much as is possible on today’s roads. Lindsay Benbrook took some photos for us.

50 Precious Gift of History

Old books are precious. Lisa Sarsfield checks out a special library and shares a few tips on how to look after old books.

18

52 Yesteryear’s Survey Plans and Tools of the Trade

Chris Rennie writes about survey plans of the early 1900s and Erika Currie finds out what the early surveyors’ lot was.

54 More than just a Job

Erika Currie profiles a company employee determined to keep a slice of our early road building history alive.

30