

CONTENTS

Issue 28 - Spring 2011

MUSEUMS

- 14 RELIVING THE IMMIGRANTS' LIFE
Between 1871 and 1898, the ship "Euterpe" carried emigrants from Britain to a new life in New Zealand. Kim Newth steps aboard the 1863 three-masted barque at the Maritime Museum of San Diego.
- 22 STORIES IN KAURI
Erika Currie visits The Kauri Museum at Matakohē and experiences the awesome history of the mighty kauri tree, its gum and a pioneering past unique to Northland.
- 36 PRESERVING FIRE SERVICE HISTORY
The Hall of Flame at Ferrymead Heritage Park in Christchurch houses the Fire Services Historical Society's extensive collection thought to be the largest in the Southern Hemisphere and one of the largest in the world. Roy Sinclair joined the boys on one of their weekly work days.

FEATURES

- 11 THE MONRAD LEGACY
This year, Bishop Monrad's 200th birthday will be celebrated in Denmark and in several centres throughout New Zealand. His place in Danish history is well established, but most New Zealanders do not know who he was, writes Helle Gilderdale on behalf of the Danish Society in Auckland.
- 18 FROM DESOLATE GUMFIELDS TO THE WORLD
The story of Josip Babich who, as a 14 year old, came from Dalmatia to the gumfields of Northland and went on to establish Babich Wines in Henderson. Erika Currie, with help from the Babich family, traces this remarkable pioneering story.
- 26 FOR THE LOVE OF ANTIQUE TOOLS
The New Zealand Vintage Tool Collectors Club was founded in 1987. What started with three men, who met at an auction, has blossomed into a club of more than 200 members throughout New Zealand, writes Erika Currie
- 30 GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN
Loved landmarks of Christchurch's Cathedral Square, including The Press building which was lost just three months before The Press was celebrating its 150th anniversary.
- 40 DRAGON FLAGS ON OTAGO GOLDFIELDS
In the 19th century the dragon flags flew in the Lawrence Chinese Camp in Otago, and the Lawrence Chinese Camp Charitable Trust promises those flags will fly again.
- 43 MRS TRACEY AND THE CENTRAL THEATRE
At a time when the cinema industry was dominated by men, Mrs Tracey became the manager and owner of the Central Theatre at Papatoetoe. This is a short story of a remarkable woman, and a theatre that's now just a memory.
- 46 THE VINYL GOES ROUND AND ROUND
It appears collecting vinyl records has never gone out of fashion. Christopher Moor finds out what makes those black discs still go round.

14

50 COLLECTOR & ENTREPRENEUR EXTRAORDINAIRE
 Many will remember Bryan Jackson caravans, and later the amazing Jackson's Muzem at Devonport. Erika Currie went to find out what Bryan and wife Robynne are up to now.

54 SHATTERED DREAMS IN OTAKI GORGE
 A pioneering history based on an exhibition "Life in the Gorge" held at Otaki Museum earlier this year, told by Vivienne Bailey.

COLUMNS

- 1 Editor's Ramblings
- 4 Mail Box, Book Draws, Correction & Heritage Roundup
- 57 Heritage Reading
- 64 Not the last picture show

PLUS

- 57 & 59 Trading Post
- 63 What's Going On – Upcoming Events
- 58 Club Listings
- 9 Subscribe and save – Freepost Order Form

26

18

46